

Positively Ageless A CELEBRATION OF ART & AGING

THE FOURTH ANNUAL BENEFIT FOR ADULT DAY SERVICES NETWORK OF ALAMEDA COUNTY

Elizabeth Carty, Center for Elders Independence & Marti Roach, Center for Strategic Facilitation.

250 people enjoyed the gallery and this year's spirited event.

Henry Reynoso of Union Bank & Anne Warner-Reitz, Network Executive Director.

Blanche Brown & other members of the African American Quilt Guild donated quilts.

The Network premiered its new video, Caring Hearts & Caring Hands

William Taw poured wine & sampled cheeses at a tasting station sponsored by Bev Mo.

THANK YOU TO OUR GENEROUS SPONSORS

LEAD SPONSORS

Kaiser Permanente	On Lok Lifeways
Center for Elders Independence	Rosen, Bien & Galvan, LLP
OakCare Medical Group	Sunrise Assisted Living of the Oakland Hills
The Frammer's Workshop	Union Bank

PARTNERS & ASSOCIATES

AgeSong at Lakeside Park	LivHome Home Care
Divine Home Care	Silpada Jewelry
Southwest Airlines	The Berkshire
Alta Bates Summit Medical Center

FRIENDS

Marti Roach	Pleasanton Nursing & Rehabilitation Center
Eden Villa Assisted Living	Joann Sullivan, Seniors Real Estate Specialist
Home Safety Services	Thornwall Properties
Nightingale Nursing	Vital Link Emergency Response System
Pacifica Senior Living	Mary Louise Zernicke

LIGHT CUISINE & WINE

O Chamé	Bette's Diner
Taste of the Himalayas	Havana Cuban Cuisine
Nutrition Solutions	BACS Meals for Change
Semifreddi's Bakery	Whole Foods
Forth Vineyards	Adams Point Winery
Chouinard Winery	Moshin Vineyards
Beverages & More	Peet's Coffee and Tea

Guests enjoyed delicious cuisine donated by local restaurants and Senior Meals' providers.

45 volunteers were key to a smooth and flowing evening.

The Network's dynamic Board of Directors. (Mona Lalchandani not pictured.)

Gera Hasse, Owner, Fourth Street Studio, welcomed guests.

Auctioneer & emcee Lucy Lewand, (right) led a spirited live auction.